

Adapting to Disruptive Times: Emerging Models for HE Provision

Senate House, University of London WC1E 7HU

Thursday 3 November 2011

Programme

- 9.30 – 10.15 Arrivals and coffee
- 10.15 – 10.35 Welcome and introductions
- Prof Jonathan Kydd, Dean of University of London International Programmes
 - Dr William Lawton, Director, Observatory on Borderless Higher Education
- 10.35 – 11.15 Session 1 – Dealing with Turbulence
- Chair: Eva Egron-Polak, Secretary General, International Association of Universities
- Ken Sloan, Director for Universities & HE, Serco
 - ‘Disruption and uncertainty in different sectors: Reasons for despondency and stagnation, or optimism and innovation?’
 - Dr Malcolm Read, Executive Secretary of JISC
 - ‘Strategic approaches for turbulent times’
- 11.15 – 11.35 discussion and questions
- 11.35 – 12.00 Break
- 12.00 – 12.40 Session 2 – Emergent Strategies for Adaptation
- Chair: Carolyn Campbell, Head of International Affairs, QAA
- Prof Geoffrey Crossick, Vice-Chancellor, University of London
 - Prof Malcolm Gillies, Vice-Chancellor, London Metropolitan University
- 12.40 – 13.00 discussion and questions
- 13.00 – 14.15 Lunch

14.15 – 14.50 Session 3 – Challenges to the sector: What they are and the potential ways forward

- Chair: Prof Sir Drummond Bone, Master of Balliol College Oxford
- Prof Eric Thomas, Vice-Chancellor, University of Bristol and President of Universities UK

14.50 – 15.30 Session 4 – The public sector: New models of provision

- Chair: Andrew Coulthard, Assistant Director IT Services, LSE
- Prof Kelvin Everest, Pro-Vice-Chancellor, University of Liverpool
 - ‘The University of Liverpool and Laureate’
 - Tim Gore, Director Global Networks and Communities, University of London International Programmes

15.30 – 15.50 discussion and questions

15.50 – 16.10 Break

16.10 – 16.50 Session 5 – The private sector: New models of provision

- Chair: Tim O'Brien, Director, INTO Knowledge, INTO University Partnerships
- Roxanne Stockwell, Managing Director for Higher Education, Pearson Education
 - Alan Jenkins, Vice-President Kaplan Europe
 - ‘The Edge Hotel School and beyond’

16.50 – 17.10 discussion and questions

17.10 – 18.00 Session 6 – Panel: Concluding thoughts and going forward

Panel Chair: Will Archer, CEO i-graduate

Panellists:

- Prof Aldwyn Cooper, Chief Executive and Principal, Regent's College
- Eva Egron-Polak, Secretary General, International Association of Universities
- Prof Jonathan Kydd, Dean, University of London International Programmes
- Ken Sloan, Director for Universities & HE, Serco

18.00 – 19.00 Wine reception

Co-hosted by Will Archer, CEO i-graduate and Prof Jonathan Kydd, Dean, University of London International Programmes